

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE ORDERS

1. Definitions and Interpretations

1.1. In these Terms and Conditions of Purchase (these Terms) Seller means the person that an Order is placed with; Buyer means the company issuing the Order. Products means products supplied or to be supplied by the Seller to the Buyer from time to time pursuant to an Order. Services means services provided or to be provided by the Seller to the Buyer from time to time pursuant to an Order. Specifications means any plans, drawings, data descriptions, blueprints, designs, samples or other specifications, instructions, guidelines or directions furnished or specified by the Buyer in respect of Products and/or Services the subject of an Order that the Buyer requires compliance with; and Order means the purchase order issued by the Buyer to the Seller.

1.2. In these Terms unless the context otherwise requires:

- a. the singular includes the plural;
- b. headings are included for convenience and do not affect the interpretation of the Terms;
- c. a reference to a person includes a reference to a natural person, partnership, trust, company, association or other entity; and
- d. a reference to the terms of an Order is a reference to the terms and conditions of purchase set out in the Order and any Specifications in respect of the Products and/or Services the subject of the Order.

2. Formation of Contract of Purchase of Products/Services

2.1. Each Order will constitute an offer by the Buyer to acquire the Products and/or Services from the Seller on the terms of the Order and these Terms to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions and qualifications (including any terms and conditions of the Seller sent before or after the issuing of the Order). In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of an Order and these Terms, the terms set out in the Order will prevail.

- a. A contract will be made between the Seller and the Buyer for the purchase and sale of the Products and/or Services upon acceptance of an Order by the Seller.
- b. The Seller is deemed to have accepted an Order if the Order has not been rejected by the Seller within 45 business days of the Seller receiving the Order.

3. Packaging, marking and transportation

3.1. All Products must:

- a. be properly packed and marked by the Seller in accordance with the Buyer's instructions; and
- b. comply with the requirements of the carrier transporting the Products. The Seller must reimburse the Buyer for all expenses incurred by the Buyer as a result of improper and/or faulty packaging or marking. No charge will be allowed for packaging, packing, boxing, marking, transport, delivery, insurance and loading costs unless specified in an Order or authorized in writing by the Buyer.

3.2. The Seller must transport or arrange for transportation of the Products in accordance with the terms of an Order and the Buyer's instructions.

3.3. If, because of the failure of the Seller to comply with the terms of an Order or the delivery instructions of the Buyer, the Buyer finds it necessary to require transport of Products the subject of an Order or other Products by a mode of transportation other than the mode originally specified by the Buyer, the Seller must reimburse the Buyer for the amount (if any) by which the cost of the substituted mode of transport exceeds the cost of the mode of transportation originally specified in an Order or by the Buyer.

- a. The Buyer may from time to time change delivery schedules or delivery dates specified in an Order or direct temporary suspension of the delivery of any Products.
- b. The Buyer will have no responsibility for delivery of Products in excess of the quantity of Products ordered and may at the option of the Buyer, be returned to the Seller at the Seller's cost and risk.
- c. If products the subject of an Order are to be delivered by installments, the contract formed by acceptance of the relevant Order will be treated as a single contract for all installments and not severable.

4. Inspection

4.1. The Buyer may at any time inspect the Products and/or Services the subject of an Order and, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the Buyer, where

- a. any of the Products supplied by the Seller are judged by the Buyer, in its sole discretion, not to comply with the warranties provided for in clause 5.1 or are otherwise not in good condition or defective the Buyer is entitled to reject the entire delivery or similar Products and the Seller must, at the request of the Buyer, notwithstanding that the Products may have been accepted or deemed to have been accepted previously, repay the price for such Products where the Products have been paid for. Where the Products have not been paid for, the Buyer is under no obligation to pay for the Products. Any return of the Products by the Buyer to the Seller will be at the cost and risk of the Seller; and
- b. any Services provided by the Seller are not in accordance with the warranty provided for in clause 5.3 the Buyer is under no obligation to pay for the Services.

4.2. The Buyer will not be deemed to have accepted any Products and/or Services unless and until the Buyer has had a reasonable time to inspect the Products and/or Services following receipt of the Products or performance of the Services as the case may be.

5. Warranties

5.1. The Seller warrants that:
